

What makes you unique?

Introduction:

Every Co-oppaw has their own unique tail that reflects something about their personality, something they are passionate about or a special talent or skill they have. If you were a Co-oppaw what would your tail look like? Add a tail to this Co-oppaw that reflects something unique about YOU!

Reflection Question:

We all have something special that makes us unique! Think about what makes you stand out and write about it. It could be a talent you have, a hobby you enjoy, a special skill you've developed, or something that you are passionate about. How did you discover this unique quality in yourself? How does it make you feel when you engage in this activity or share it with others? Have you ever used this unique quality to help others or make a positive impact?
